Illinois School District Upgrades Entire Fleet to Gatekeeper Solid State Technology – Contract Size $81,200

Abbotsford, BC August 15th, 2013 Gatekeeper Systems Inc. (the “Company”) (TSX.V: GSI) is pleased to announce it has received a new contract from Illinois School District, Aurora West Unit School District 129, for its solid state bus video technology. The contract, totaling $81,200, included supply and installation of 58 three camera solid school bus video systems.

Aurora West Unit School District 129 is located west of Chicago, Illinois, and is committed to providing a safe environment on their school buses. The District switched from a competitor’s product to Gatekeeper’s latest solid-state technology, upgrading their entire fleet.

“More and more school districts are switching to our solid state technology”, stated Doug Dymant, President and CEO of Gatekeeper. “Our foot is on the accelerator and we will continue to push aggressively into every geographic region exposing our technology to customers across multiple niches”, Dymant added.
