Gatekeeper Announces New Contract for its XFORCE™ System Designed for Law Enforcement Mobile Applications

Abbotsford, BC November 18th, 2013 - Gatekeeper Systems Inc. (The “Company” or “Gatekeeper”) (TSX.V: GSI) is pleased to announce it has received its first contract for its latest video system designed for law enforcement market under its XFORCE brand.

Gatekeeper’s XFORCE (Extreme Forward Looking Reconnaissance System) provides law enforcement agencies with forward-looking, high-resolution video capable of detecting license plates from long range and under difficult lighting conditions. XFORCE software allows officers to control the system from their laptop, reducing clutter in the vehicle. Gatekeeper’s unique wireless platform allows law enforcement agencies to download video automatically when vehicles return to the base.

President and CEO Doug Dymant stated, “ We are excited to receive this initial order. We are also in the process of launching a high definition product line for the law enforcement market under the XFORCE brand”.
